

Inclusion Key Staff

Mr Wooding is Assistant Headteacher for Inclusion. His Master's degree included a module on Inclusion (in particular dyslexia and diversity) and another on Language practices in Social Context. He published a paper on sickle cell and inclusion in practical theatre work for the CADISE. He has had three articles published on the deployment and development of Teaching Assistants. He studied on Future Leaders and also undertook M level training to qualify as an assessor for alternative exam arrangements as well as an M level SENCO qualification.

Miss Oliver – Assistant SENCo Miss Oliver is Assistant SENCo; she has actively worked with a range of SEN pupils in a previous primary school role while completing a BA honours degree in International Culinary Arts and PGCE in Food and Textiles. Before joining the Inclusion faculty Miss Oliver worked closely with SEN pupils in her form class and lessons.

Mrs Titeux is a Special Education Needs Teacher with a Postgraduate Diploma in Specific Learning Difficulties.

Ms Belmont is a Speech and Language Therapist. She has a Masters in Joint Professional Practice which included a research dissertation on the outcomes of training others. She is working with the Teaching Assistant team to develop their skills around Speech, Language and Communication Development and Needs.

Teaching Assistants undertake CPD and details of this can be found on the inclusion CPD January 2016 tab. Currently we have Teaching Assistants trained in Elklan, Dyslexia and Dyscalculia.